Story

New Living Translation

In my first book I told you, Theophilus, about everything Jesus began to do and teach until the day He was taken up to heaven after giving His chosen apostles further instructions through the Holy Spirit.

During the forty days after His crucifixion, He appeared to the apostles from time to time, and He proved to them in many ways that He was actually alive. And He talked to them about the Kingdom of God. Once when He was eating with them, He commanded them, "Do not leave Jerusalem until the Father sends you the gift He promised, as I told you before. John baptized with water, but in just a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

So when the apostles were with Jesus, they kept asking Him, "Lord, has the time come for You to free Israel and restore our kingdom?" He replied, "The Father alone has the authority to set those dates and times, and they are not for you to know. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be My witnesses, telling people about Me everywhere - in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

After saying this, He was taken up into a cloud while they were watching, and they could no longer see Him. As they strained to see Him rising into heaven, two white-robed men suddenly stood among them. "Men of Galilee," they said, "why are you standing here staring into heaven? Jesus has been taken from you into heaven, but someday He will return from heaven in the same way you saw Him go!"

Acts 1:1-11

Simple Version

Jesus met his friends many times after he came back to life. One time he said to them, 'Don't leave Jerusalem until the Holy Spirit comes and gives you strength.' Then he went up into the sky and disappeared behind a cloud. His friends couldn't believe their eyes! But two men in white came and said to them, 'Jesus has gone up to heaven. But he will come back one day.'

Questions to discuss

After reading the story together, you could discuss these questions as a family:

1. What are you looking forward to doing with your friends when you see them again?
2. What is special about your friends? What do they do that shows they are good friends?
3. How do you think Jesus' friends felt when he left them and went back to heaven?
4. Jesus told his friends to make him more friends. How do you think they did it?

How about making a model of the story using Lego?

Father God, thank you for sending Jesus to the world. Thank you that Jesus is so good and so great! Thank you that Jesus wants to be my best friend. Please help me to be a good friend to him.
Amen

Sing

Jesus will never, ever,
No not ever, never ever change.
He will always, always, that's for all days,
Always be the same.
So as Son of God and King of kings
He will forever reign.
Yesterday, today, forever
Jesus is the same.
Yesterday, today, forever
Jesus is the same. Hey!
