Story

New Living Translation

Moses called all the elders of Israel together and said to them, "Go, pick out a lamb or young goat for each of your families, and slaughter the Passover animal. Drain the blood into a basin. Then take a bundle of hyssop branches and dip it into the blood. Brush the hyssop across the top and sides of the doorframes of your houses. And no one may go out through the door until morning. For the Lord will pass through the land to strike down the Egyptians. But when he sees the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe, the Lord will pass over your home. He will not permit his death angel to enter your house and strike you down.

"Remember, these instructions are a permanent law that you and your descendants must observe forever. When you enter the land the Lord has promised to give you, you will continue to observe this ceremony. Then your children will ask, 'What does this ceremony mean?' And you will reply, 'It is the Passover sacrifice to the Lord, for he passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt. And though he struck the Egyptians, he spared our families.'" When Moses had finished speaking, all the people bowed down to the ground and worshiped.

So the people of Israel did just as the Lord had commanded through Moses and Aaron. And that night at midnight, the Lord struck down all the firstborn sons in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, who sat on his throne, to the firstborn son of the prisoner in the dungeon. Even the firstborn of their livestock were killed. Pharaoh and all his officials and all the people of Egypt woke up during the night, and loud wailing was heard throughout the land of Egypt. There was not a single house where someone had not died.

Israel's Exodus from Egypt

Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron during the night. "Get out!" he ordered. "Leave my people—and take the rest of the Israelites with you! Go and worship the Lord as you have requested. Take your flocks and herds, as you said, and be gone. Go, but bless me as you leave."

Simple version

God told Moses and Aaron "Tell the Israelites that I will be passing through Egypt and that the first-born son from every family in Egypt will die tonight. To keep their family safe, they must follow these instructions. They must choose a healthy one-year old lamb or goat to kill and eat and paint some of the animal's blood on their door posts. As soon as it becomes dark, they must stay in the house. The meat must be cooked as a special meal and they must be fully dressed ready to go on a journey.

The blood on their doors will show me that Israelites live there, they will be safe.

This day will be a special festival to the Lord every year.

That night, God passed through Egypt and killed all the first-born sons in the land. However, the Israelites were saved and Pharaoh finally let them leave Egypt.

Questions to discuss:

After reading the story together, you could discuss these questions as a family:

1. Can you think of three rules that keep you safe on the roads?
2. What did God tell Moses that the people needed to do to keep safe?
3. What were the people instructed to eat? (see story to colour)
4. How does God keep you safe?

THE Passover

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Pharaoh would not let his slaves,
the children of Israel, go.
God did many miracles until Pharaoh changed his mind.

God told Moses, "Tonight every family of Israel must eat a meal of roast lamb, with herb sauce and flat bread.
This will be called the "Feast of the Pass Over."

Take a small branch and paint the blood of the lamb around the door frame.
It will keep you safe from the sickness
I will send on the land," said God.

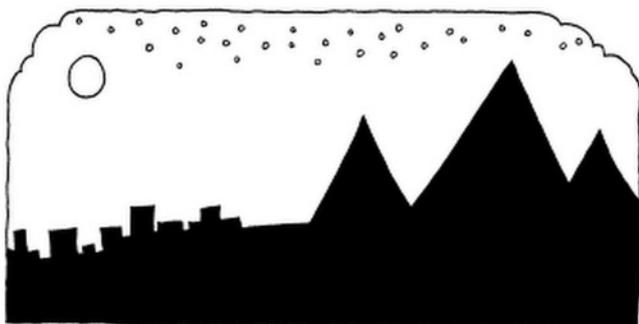

"Stay inside your house because
God's angel will pass through the city.
Pharaoh's people will get sick and die because he will not listen and let God's people go.

But the people in the houses with the blood of the lamb on the door frame will not get sick, because they are trusting and obeying God.

So the families of Israel did as God told Moses and prayed that God would keep them safe.
Soon they would be free from Pharaoh and go to a new land God had promised them.

That night the angel of God passed over the city and even Pharaoh's own boy got sick and died.
But God kept the families of Israel safe.

Since that time, God's people celebrate the feast of the Pass Over and thank God for saving His people.
Jesus did this too, with his friends.

Short Prayer

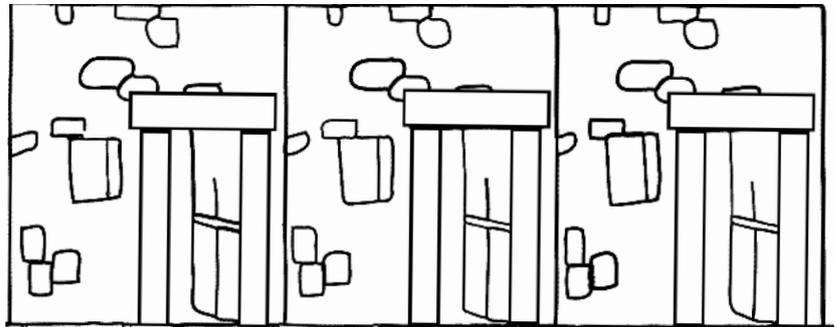

O God, thank You for listening to every prayer.
 Thank You that you know how I feel.
 Thank You for making a way for me to be friends with You.
 Thank you for sending Jesus to the world.
 Amen.

Creative Prayer

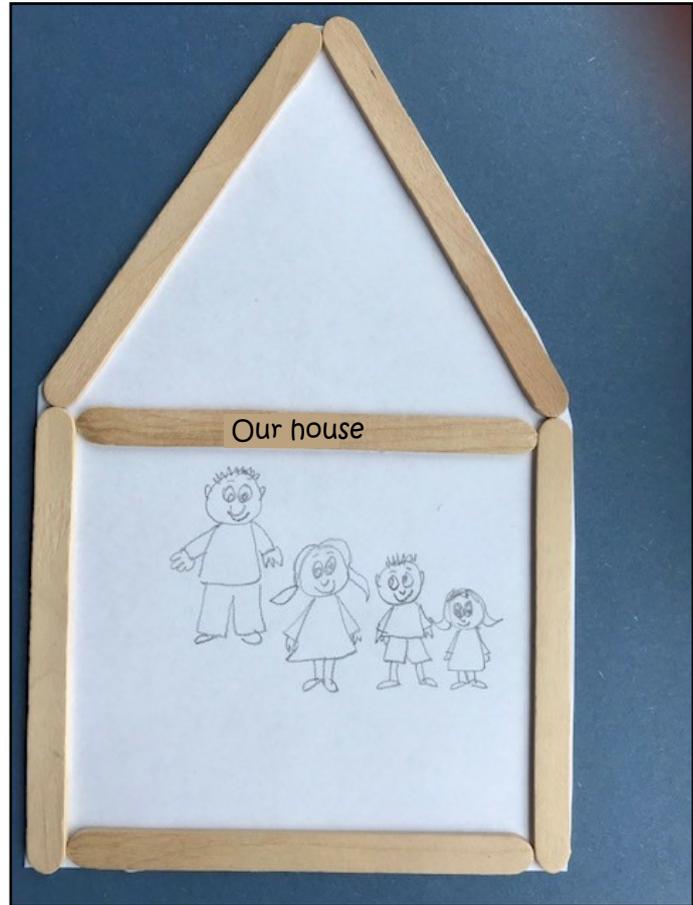

Prayer for our house

You will need:

- 6 lollipop sticks or 6 strips of card
- Paper
- A felt pen or pencil
- Glue
- Scissors

What to do:

- Glue the lollipop sticks (or card strips) onto the paper to create the shape of a house as pictured
- Draw everyone living in your house on the paper inside the frame of the house.
- As you draw the pictures, thank God for them and ask Him to be with them and keep them safe.

The red cross

Make a small cross with twigs or sticks and other items. You will also need red material or ribbon.

- Take a red ribbon and wrap it for the cross.
- Remember that Jesus died for you. He is like the lamb in the story. He saves us and frees us from our sins.
- Ask God to help you understand how Jesus can save you and make you free.

The red ribbon and the cross also remind us of the Red Cross charity.

- Pray for Red Cross volunteers and staff this week. Look them up online to find out more.

Recipe

Lamb 'koftas'

You will need:

- 500g lamb mince
- 2 teaspoons of coriander
- 2 garlic cloves - finely chopped
- 1 teaspoon of ground cumin
- 1 teaspoon of paprika
- 1 teaspoon lemon peel (grated)
- 1 teaspoon of finely chopped mint leaves
- 8 wooden skewers
- a little oil

What to do:

1. Preheat the oven to 180 ° C (fan).
2. Mix all the ingredients together until everything is completely combined.
3. Divide the mixture into 8 small balls.
4. Roll the balls on a table until they are like long sausages.
5. Put the skewer through the centre of the long 'sausages' until you see the wood coming out on the other side. Do the same with all 8.
6. Put a little oil over the koftas, then place on a suitable dish or oven tin. Place each skewer to rest on both sides of the dish or tin, so that the 'kofta' does not touch the bottom.
7. Put in the oven for half an hour, until the meat is browned enough.

When Jesus died He was sorting out sin
All the bad to come, all the wrong that has been.
How awesome! He's amazing.
What was deserved for everyone's wrong
Was taken by Him - His plan all along
How awesome! He's worth praising.

Incredible hope offered to the whole world;
This relentless love God has for all.
It's such good news it just has to be told.
Jesus is the saviour of the world.

What this all means with Him sorting out sin:
Say sorry to him and all our bad's forgiven.
How awesome! He's amazing.
With hearts made clean, He can be known as friend.
He cares for us all with a love that won't end.
How awesome! He's worth praising.

Games

'Laser' game

You will need:

- About 10 metres of wool or string
- Starting point and end point
- A box of 'treasure' to be collected by the players
- Timer
- Suitable location - in a room or in the hall or outside if there are places to attach things

Build the maze:

- You can wrap the wool around anything like door handles, boxes, furniture, large toys, anything light enough to anchor the cord or wool.
- Zigzag the wool high and low in your chosen places.
- Place your 'treasure box' at the maze finish area but put items of treasure in different places along the course.

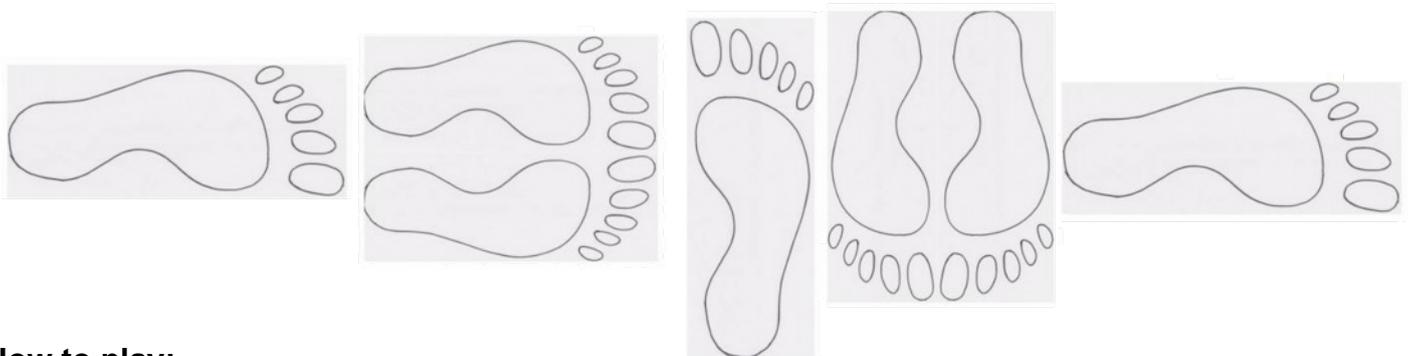

How to play:

- Collect the 'treasure' and arrive at the end of the 'laser' maze without touching the wool.
- If you touch the wool, start again.
- Time yourself doing this a number of times or you can compete against a family member.

Feet game

You will need:

- Feet drawn on paper as in the pictures below. Draw enough to make a path (about 12 papers)
- Tape to attach the papers to the floor
- Plenty of space to create the trail
- Timer - watch or phone

How to play:

- Position the feet to create a path at different angles as pictured.
- Use the tape to attach them to the floor.
- A player goes along the path putting his or her feet exactly as they are on the paper.
- If he/she lands incorrectly with their feet, they must start again.
- How fast can you get down the path correctly?
