New Living Translation

Now the Festival of Unleavened Bread arrived, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed. Jesus sent Peter and John ahead and said, "Go and prepare the Passover meal, so we can eat it together."

"Where do you want us to prepare it?" they asked him.

He replied, "As soon as you enter Jerusalem, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. At the house he enters, say to the owner, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?' He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal." They went off to the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

When the time came, Jesus and the apostles sat down together at the table. Jesus said, "I have been very eager to eat this Passover meal with you before my suffering begins. For I tell you now that I won't eat this meal again until its meaning is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God." Then he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. Then he said, "Take this and share it among yourselves. For I will not drink wine again until the Kingdom of God has come."

He took some bread and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." After supper he took another cup of wine and said, "This cup is the new covenant between God and his people - an agreement confirmed with my blood, which is poured out as a sacrifice for you."

Simple version

Jesus had arranged to have his last meal with his disciples. He told Peter and John, "go and prepare the Passover meal." They asked Jesus, "where will the meal be held." Jesus told them, "go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a jar of water. Follow him and ask the owner of the house to show you the guest room. Prepare the meal there."

As evening came it was time to have the meal so Jesus sat around the table with the disciples. Before they had the meal, Jesus washed the disciples' feet and told them "love each other and care for each other just as I love and care for you."

Jesus took the loaf of bread and said, "take this bread and share it - it represents my body given for you." He then took a cup of wine and said, "take the wine and drink it - it represents my blood poured out for you."

Questions to discuss

After reading the story together, you could discuss these questions as a family:

1. When friends and family can get together for a meal again, who will you invite?
2. What would you get to eat together?
3. What were the two things that Jesus shared with His disciples in the story?
4. How were these two things going to help us remember Jesus?

Short prayer

Dear God, thank You for Jesus.

Thank You because He came into the world and lived a life full of love.

Please help me to understand how much Jesus loves me.

Amen.

JESUS eats with his friends

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

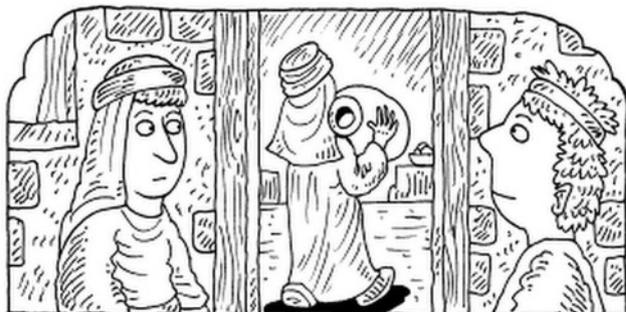

Jesus went to Jerusalem,
for the very last time,
to eat the special
Passover feast with his friends.

Jesus said to his friends,
"I want to eat the Passover feast
with you before I go away.
Go and get it ready for us.

Look for a man carrying a water jar and follow him.
He will show you where to go."
His friends found the man and followed him.

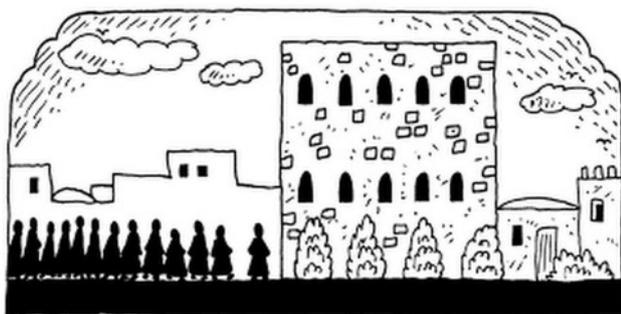

The man went into a house.
This was the house Jesus would come to.
Jesus friends knocked
at the door and waited.

"Do you have a room for Jesus?" they asked.
"Yes, I have a room upstairs.
Everything you will need is ready.
I knew Jesus would come," said the man.

He took them upstairs to a big room.
They got dinner ready
with baskets of flat bread
and wine, made from grape juice.

Soon Jesus came with his other friends.
They went up stairs
to have dinner together.

Jesus took the flat bread and broke it.
They shared it. They shared the grape juice, too.
Jesus said, "Whenever you do this, remember me."
In church we call this "Communion."

Creative prayer

Draw a loaf of bread and a cup (see picture) then fill in the pictures with "Play-Doh." As you do this, think about the words Jesus said in Luke Chapter 22, verse 19. "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Prayer on a plate

You will need:

- A paper plate
- Felt pens

The 12 disciples were with Jesus at the last supper.

Think of 12 people you would want to be with and enjoy a meal.

Write their names on the paper plate, or draw their pictures on the plate.

Thank God for them.

Ask God to be close to them.

Puzzles

Cups of wine

How many cups of wine can you find hidden in the picture below?

Which house?

Can you help the two disciples find their way to the house where they'll prepare the last supper? They can only travel where you can see the road (white bits).

Jigsaw

Cut the jigsaw into pieces.

Mix up the pieces.

How quickly can you put the jigsaw back together?

This food is part of the Jewish passover meal.

Recipe

Unleavened bread (Bread without yeast)

Ingredients:

- 2 cups and 2 tablespoons of plain flour
- 1 cup of cold water
- ½ teaspoon of salt

Method:

- Mix the salt with the flour in a large bowl. Add the water and mix until a dough is formed. Then knead the dough for 5 minutes.
- Heat the frying pan by putting it on a medium heat.
- Take 7 pieces of dough and form balls. Roll out each ball into an oval (about 15cm long) on a lightly floured surface.
- Cook the dough in the warm pan for 2 minutes each side.

Charoset

Ingredients:

- 1 cup of walnuts (halves and pieces)
- 250g of dates (about 13 large ones with the stone removed from each)
- ¼ cup of orange juice
- 1 'Granny Smith' apple peeled, finely ground and crushed.
- ½ teaspoon of cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon of ginger

Method:

- Put the walnuts in the food processor and chop finely. Then transfer the nuts to a bowl. Keep a tablespoon of the nuts to decorate the charoset.
- Now put the dates and orange juice in the food processor and process the ingredients to make a thick paste. Remember to scrape the sides of the processor bowl every now and then if necessary.
- Transfer the paste to the bowl that has the walnuts. Add the apple, cinnamon and ginger and mix thoroughly.
- Taste the charoset and add more orange juice, cinnamon and ginger if you want a stronger flavour.
- To decorate, sprinkle the remaining spoonful of walnuts over the top of the charoset.

If you do not have a food processor you can make the charoset by hand.

Remember the time, through this bread and wine,
When Jesus paid a great price
He gave everything to pay for our sin,
Our forgiveness cost Jesus his life.

*The bread is His body broken for me
A love that He wants me to see
The wine is the blood, a promise, the key
To life and forgiveness for me.*

The love Jesus showed, like a holy download,
Offering us all brand new starts.
Remember this time, the bread and wine,
And lets treasure these things in our hearts.

Challenges

'Thinking of you' cards

How about sending a card to a friend or family member to say that you're thinking about them? Maybe you could make one like those pictured.

Thanks

When sharing a meal with your family, think of something that has happened in the last week that you are thankful for. Then say a thank you prayer for this and the food before eating.

Memory verse

How about learning this verse by heart?

"This is my body, which is given for you.
 Do this in remembrance of me."

Luke chapter 22 verse 19

Remember

Think of things which help us remember people or things and make a poster of them.
